The IVANHOE ZINC COMPANY, with a capital of $500,000, has purchased immense deposits of exceedingly rich zinc ores, which they are now developing, and will soon erect several zinc furnaces.

Being the only city in the Southern connection of the Norfolk and Western Railroad, IVANHOE, must become a great distributing point for the immense ore fields and agricultural and timber districts of Southwest Virginia and Western North Carolina. Situated in the midst of a great wool raising district, and within a short distance of the Southern cotton fields. No place in Virginia possesses greater advantages for woolen and cotton mills.

Vast tracts of Red and White oak, chestnut, hickory, pine and hemlock, near at hand, furnish exceptional opportunities for wood-working establishments and steam tanneries.

Water works, planing mill and brick factory will be erected at an early date.

Being 2,000 feet above the sea, the climate is unsurpassed by the celebrated mountain resorts of the world. Through its connections with the steamship lines, the Louisville and Nashville, the Cape Fear and Yankin Valley and the Shenandoah Railroad and its outlet on the Ohio River, the Norfolk and Western Railroad places IVANHOE in direct communication with the great markets of North, East, South and West. The Hastings Court.

In the case of S. B. Race against the Wytheville Banking Company for $600 insurance, was continued to the December term of court, the jury having failed to agree on a verdict.

The jury also failed to agree in the case of R. H. Day against R. B. Moorman, H. H. Myers, and others. The suit was brought to determine the number of bricks furnished by plaintiff to defendants for the building on Commerce street near Salem avenue, now occupied by Fox & Christian's drug store and Nelson & Myers' hardware store. These two cases consumed the entire day.

Colored Virgins Quarrel.

Myra Patterson and Lee Taylor, both colored, got into a difficulty yesterday morning at Charley Morton's boarding house on Railroad avenue, and Myra stabbed Taylor in the side, inflicting a dangerous wound. Jim the Penman at the Opera House.

Mr. A. M. Palmer's Company presented "Jim the Penman" at the Opera House last night, to a large and appreciative audience. The moving plot of this well-known and popular melodrama, needs no further explanation. The play ranks with the first of its class. The construction is excellent, the dialogue, at no point monotonous, develops the plot through a series of well-sustained climaxes to the end.

The company possesses the evenness of merit and fine stage presence which are characteristics of all Madison Square Theatre companies. Mr. Charles C. Siegel as James Kalamon—"Jim the Penman"—gave a rendition full of vital force and good acting. His portrayal of the mental distress of a hunted man was vivid with realism. Edwin Travers, as Capt. Redwood; Louise Hall, as Nina; and Evelyn Kelly as Annie, his sister, were strong parts. But the company was excellent throughout.

By arrangement with Mr. Palmer, "Jim the Penman" will be repeated Monday night at the Opera House. It deserves a cordial reception.

Struck by Lightning.

Roanoke was visited yesterday evening by a storm of wind and dust. A black cloud in the southwest threatened rain, but only a little fell in the afternoon. During the storm the house of Mr. Chatham, near the Melrose race course, was struck by lightning and the chimney knocked down; it broke the plastering, and tore up the floor. Mr. and Mrs. Chatham, two children, and J. W. Smith and Thomas Bondurant were severely shocked, but not injured.

Picnic in Carr's Woods.

The scholars of Bethany Presbyterian Sunday School were given a picnic yesterday in Carr's Woods, and the children spent a very pleasant day. The rain that came up in the afternoon forced the party to return to the city earlier than had been anticipated.

New Savings Bank.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Traders Loan and Deposit Company, held on the 5th instant, it was decided that a savings bank department should be opened in connection with its other line of business.

It was the intention of this company at the time of its organization to open a savings bank when its capital stock was fully paid. This has now been accomplished. With a capital of $200,000, paid in cash, net undivided profits of $7,854.00, and a fire-proof vault, this bank offers ample security to depositors. The officers and directors are men of high standing and well known, with business capacity which guarantees a conservative use of the money lodged with it.

The object of this savings bank is to afford a secure investment to persons of either sex who receive money in small sums and are desirous of saving it and have no other facilities for securely investing it; to assist and encourage the industrious and frugal to lay by such part of their earnings as they may be able to spare, and to provide for the safe-keeping of money lodged with it. Deposits will be received in sums of one dollar and upwards, on which 5 per cent. will be paid. Certificates of deposits issued at special rates of interest, and deposits received subject to check. Savings bank will be open to receive deposits on the 15th of September.
